Phil Parker

Phil Parker is an internationally renowned lecturer, therapist and innovator in the field of personal development. His training as a Hypnotherapist, Executive Coach, Certified Master Practitioner of NLP and Osteopath give his work a unique perspective and provide new solutions to meet the challenges and opportunities of life in the 21st century.

"I have been very impressed with the results of the Lightning Process. I have seen the lives of some of my patients transformed by this self empowering technique. Everyone who has battled with chronic illness and wants to win should have the opportunity to do the Lightning Process."

Dr Rajesh Munglani MB BS DCH DA FRCA FFPMRCA, Consultant in Pain Management

"We'd been searching for five years to find a cure for my wife Louise's ME. Louise is now completely recovered and our future is brilliant again. Having seen the Lightning Process in action, I'm convinced it is the most powerful way to make rapid and lasting changes in any area of your life."

Austin Healey, former England Rugby International
